

Cline Patsy, Sweet Dreams

In my times of loneliness I'm wondering
What came over me, the sight of the light
My life's a nightmare every time I open my eyes
I makes me wanna fall to sleep
Blinded by the morning sun
Sweet dream, lonely night
Sweet dream, another lonely night, so lonely.
Take the past it's just a dream
Reality is present and fiction's not clear
Take my hand I'll show you the way
I don't care if I'm wrong or right
As long as I set my sweet dreams tonight
Sweet dream, lonely night, sweet dream
In my life I feel despair every day
But you can't see
My eyes filling with tears
Broken dreams from an endless night
Reborn from the ashes of a previous life
Sweet dream, lonely night, sweet dream
