

Clinic, August

August they're bowling, latchkey son holding
August you knew it was true
August with laughter, trust us days after
August you knew it was true
One for you Anna and one for you Anna to choose
One for you Anna and one for you Anna to choose
August by firelight now you can confide
August you knew it was true
August with pipelines, second world war files
August you knew it was true
One for you Anna and one for you Anna to choose
One for you Anna and one for you Anna to choose
