

Clint Black, I'll Take Texas

(Clint Black/Hayden Nichols)

There's no reason I should go
When I really want to stay
There's no place that I know
I'd go to anyway
If ya ask me, I'll take Texas any day.

There's folks who travel 'round
Ain't no place they will stay
And never can be found
Anywhere but on their way
But you can find me here in Texas any day.

There's everything and more
Than you could hope to find
From the sandy beaches
To the mountains and the pines
My mind's got room to wander
But my heart will never stray
And you can find me here in Texas any day.

--- Instrumental ---

There's no reason I should go
And you really ought to stay
By now you've got to know
There's only one thing I could say
If ya ask me, I'll take Texas any day.

--- Instrumental ---

There's everything and more
Than you could hope to find
There's miles of smilin' faces
All just one of a kind
My mind's got room to wander
But my heart will never stray
And you can find me here in Texas
I'll be right here in Texas
If ya ask me, I'll take Texas any day...
