

Clint Black, Longnecks & Rednecks

She sees him flag down the waitress
A picture of greeting and class
She brings him his beer in a bottle
Then he goes and pours it in a glass

Longnecks ain't nothin' without rednecks
It takes more than a cowboy hat to really make them cool
And rednecks ain't nothin' without longnecks
That's why we all feel ten feet tall sittin' on a stool

Now a bottle is what drinkin' was made for
It doesn't take some suds to make that clear
You won't find Martinis on the dance floor
But I can do the two-step drinkin' beer

Longnecks ain't nothin' without rednecks
It takes more than some cowboy boots to really make them cool
And rednecks ain't nothin' without longnecks
That's why we all feel ten feet tall sittin' on a stool

Pour anything you want into a cocktail
Those highbrow drinks don't show how smart you are
It's not that kinda class that made Budweiser
It's the higher education at the bar

Longnecks ain't nothin' without rednecks
It takes more than the honky tonk to really make them cool
And rednecks ain't nothin' without longnecks
That's why we all feel ten feet tall sittin' on a stool

Yeah, that's why we all feel ten feet tall sittin' on a stool
