

Clockwise, Piece Of Dirt

Reload mine...
Gently, plastic foil on me
My rotten skin
And I won't bleed
Black is black, white is black
Please believe...
What's wrong?
Want to see
Searching for new diagnosis
But your silence but your silence
Means everything
I love you here
But even that tears my bitches scar please implicate me
I should choose one way
But i can't go and i can't stay
I feel sun lays in me
But don't know where
If you don't care then I won't share
Share...
Hurry up
No one's heart changing in none
It's almost done
God made me weird
Drastic point in your tragedy
I'm Piece Of Dirt
I should choose one way
But i can't go and i can't stay
I feel sun lays in me
But don't know where
If you don't care then I won't share...
