

Close To Home, Once Again

Wipe that dirty look off your face
Who's to blame for the mess you've made?
A waste of space that's what they say.
A different person with your face.
I guess I just miss. Miss you
I miss my best friend.
I need you here with me.

It's too early, I'm not ready.
To let you see right through me
Once Again
It's so unnerving, and I'm deserving
I won't let you see through me
Once Again

I know I need these simple sympathies
I know I need this.. I know I need
It's a lost cause because you're too far gone.
I miss my best friend.
I need you here with me.

It's too early, I'm not ready.
To let you see right through me
Once Again
It's so unnerving, and I'm deserving
Won't let you see right me
Once Again

Again I'm lost again
Cuz here we are back where we started
Before we grew apart
And now your heart is hard and
All I see is fear
In your eyes in your eyes..
