

Close To Home, One Happy Ending

I feel like i&quot;m falling to pieces (pieces)
But what can I say (what can I say)
To change my ways to make me feel like
I'm not running in place
I don't like who I am and I don't like my life
Going through the motions but never know why
I don't know who I am and I don't know anything
Don't know anything about were I'm going

Like a bird in the wind.
Like a seed in the ground
Don't know where I am.
Don't know what I will be
All I know is I got a dream
And that's all that keeps me going

The one thing that I've learned while watching bridges I burn
Is that you can try your best but it's just not enough.
And you believed a million lies
It'll take a million tries to reach one happy ending

Everyone wants to be in a magazine everyone wants to be number one
But when it's all over
Who cares who you are
Cause it's gonna be a better one
We're all running the same race
I see the same look on your face
You're running face but where are you going
It's not worth the sacrifice for this life
Just do what you love
What makes you happy
Cause baby it's just isn't enough
The fire fuel [??] break
Where everyone dies with nothing.

The one thing that I've learned while watching bridges I burn
Ts that you can try your best but it's just not enough.
And you believed a million lies
It'll take a million tries to reach one happy ending
