

Close To Home, Picking Up The Pieces

You had the worst of me,
Honest to god how did you say?
Inside was begging for love but my arms,
Wouldn't show it,

Don't let go,
I beg you please
Yes I would die if you left me.
I'm sorry for, the things I've done
But look at who, I've become, for you,

Honey I wait for you
For you
Honey I wait for you
For you

These lonely nights are calling,
Here as the stars are falling down.
Around your life,
I wait for you tonight.

These memories can never erase,
The tears that stain, your pillowcase,
Please stay forever, I'll make you deserving
Please know these lessons, Yet I am still learning
I'll mend all these pieces of heart back together
With each passing second and every hour,

I wait...

Honey I wait for you
For you
Honey I wait for you
For you

These lonely nights are calling
Here as the stars are falling down
Around your life
I'll wait for you tonight

These lonely are calling
Here as the stars are falling down
Around your life
I'll wait for you tonight

You've gotta wait
To make it worth your while
Don't turn away
If you got something to say

You've gotta wait
To make it worth your while
Don't turn away
If you got something to say

These lonely nights are calling
Here as the stars are falling down
Around your life

These lonely nights are calling
Around your life
I'll wait for you tonight.
