

Closedown, Murder At The Discotheque

It's harder to tell you all
I miss the way it used to be mine
As I'm laying on the rain, they're dancing slowly
It's like a puzzle in place where no one have been

For only a word, only a moment, only a sign or maybe a lifetime
I'm lost in here and I'm giving us a second chance

To forget about the rest

Well maybe a lifetime cause I'll hold on for seconds
Only a shining livid light to share
Cause you're bringing air to make me feel like I'm alive
I'm alright if you die, I'm alright if you don't ...
