

Closet Monster, Corporate Media Death Squad

Just one more headline, stop the press.
Forget about their news.
Its filtered through years of pedigree and policy.
We don't think you don't think twice,
cause you don't think at all.
The weathers nice so here's another useless hit pop song.
I want to smash the radio.
I want to smash the radio.
The struggle's about freedom,
no who is going to win it.
A public service announcement for you:
no one should profit from the news.
2-4-6-8 first things first then smash the state.
5-6-7-8 right about then I'm feeling great.
I want to smash the radio.
I want to smash the radio.
The struggle's about freedom,
not who is going to win it... oh yeah.
