

Cloud Cult, Pretty Voice

A scene begins
With our next melody
Sung by a bashful bird
Humming a violet sky
There are no words
But there is understanding
It's been so long
Since I've heard your pretty voice

Raise up the lights
And enter hero girl
She makes me calm
God, she makes me calm
When she hears the song
And she starts singing
It's been so long
Since I've heard your pretty voice

Strike up the band
Here comes the storyline
About the usual struggle
Between fear and love
This is the lifelong song
And we're all singing
It's been so long
Since I've heard your pretty voice

Now it begins
I miss your harmony
But you're so shy
You're such a bashful bird
Here's a song
But no one's singing
It's been so long
Since I've heard your pretty voice
