

Clouds, Apollo

I fly in my sleep
High and sharply steep
I will drink from the sky
I'll raise my cup and take my fill
I will

I've spent my life ready for this

I can feel the storm
Close, heavy and warm
But I'm unafraid
I will face the dark and outrun it
Won't quit

I've spent my life ready for this
Ready for this, ready for this.

Apollo so bright
I will lose myself
In the blistering light
Then you and I will become one
Dive into the sun
Dive into the sun
