

Clouds, Cinnamon

Cinnamon in your veins
Cinnamon in your heart
We seek you out
There's a lot of us about

Cinnamon rules my world
Cinnamon boys and girls
You'd best beware
I can smell it in your hair

I'm on your tail I'm at your door
And I'll be back for more

As soon as I get my hit
I want some more of it
So sweet my cinnamon surprise
Just look into those eyes
And I'll be back for more

Cinnamon in your blood
Flowing beneath your skin
Please let me in
I can make you one of us
So don't be shy
Don't run for cover
My cinnamon lover

I'll tiptoe through your dreams
No-one will hear a scream
So sweet my cinnamon surprise
Just look into those eyes

My cinnamon lover
I'll tiptoe through your dreams
No-one will hear a scream
So sweet my cinnamon surprise
Just look into those eyes
