

Clouds, Fantastic Tear

I've sat here worrying for too long
Wondering what it was that you were doing wrong
Got an unhealthy respect for my old man

Love everything you do
Funny I love it when you don't hear me
So I can shed a fantastic tear

When you told me the big news
I felt so lonely but my friends were amused
Got an unnatural respect for my old man

Love what you put me through
Funny I love it when you let me down
So I can shed a fantastic tear

For the way you make me feel
