

Clouds, Visionary

Call them, what do you see?
It's difficult with dull jewellery
The answer is not in a prayer
As Truman said - but what would you care?

Won't wait and see
No time for my destiny
It's clear to everyone but me
Won't wait and see
The future's catching up with me
It's here - so why can't I see?

The three before told me lies
But this one saw deep into my eyes
The sea is full of tall dark men
Makes perfect sense that I should have one of them

Won't wait and see
I don't need the mystery
This here will pay for my destiny
Won't wait and see
The future's caught with me
It's here so why can't I see?
