

Clouds, Wave

He comes in waves
Crashing on me
Climbing that wall
He loves to fall

Reaching for the top
Breaking away
See your shadow fall

She wears smoke rings
On her fingers
Made by his lips
All hers to kiss

Swelling up again
And moving the air
See your shadow fall
It's bigger than you and me

It's only water
(?)
Down to waves of Holy water

Holding their breath
'Til there's none left
They get so high
By the new sky

It's bigger than you and me
