

Clover, Fairweather Fan

I'm a fair weather fan
The sun is shining outside
It makes me happy to see you smiling
And feeling good inside

Well, all the clouds have gone away
They will come again someday
But right now...

Mmm
The sun is shining
The sun is shining

I'm a warm-blooded man
When your light is shining on me (ahh, you know)
You know how to make me happy
You put your arms around me

Ooh, seasons come seasons go
Why they're turning, nobody knows
I know right now, know right now...

The sun is shining (yeah)
The sun is shining

I'm a fair weather fan
The sun is shining outside
It makes me happy to see you smiling
And feeling good inside

Hey
All the clouds have gone away
They will come again someday
But right now, mmm,...

The sun is shining
The sun is shining

Mmm, when all the clouds have gone away
They will come again some day
Ooh, seasons come and seasons go
Why they are turning, nobody knows

The sun is shining (yeah)
The sun is shining
The sun is shining
The sun is shining (yeah)
The sun is shining
The sun is shining
The sun is shining (yeah)
The sun is shining etc.
