

Cnx Anti-Social, When You Belong To Me

I'm gonna undress your soul kiss to kiss until feeling that your body is spilled like rain over me by the edge of your back I'm gonna draw my love without hiding this damn passion each beat of your heart each breathing of yours will belong to me when you belong to me, you'll see it, baby all the nights will be good to make you love when you belong to me in each dream I am going to be I'm going make you search, request, and cry for my heart

I'm gonna tear petals out of your dreams like the most beautiful flower I'm gonna always live like a stupid slave of your voice from the arc of your eyebrow to your sweet intimacy caresses I am going to seed
each beat of your heart
each breathing yours will belong to me

all the nights will be good to make you love

Say you love me, I'll vibrate you you'll suplicate to love you more in my arms you'll flew, you'll reach the sky you'll never escaped

all the nights will be good to make you love
when you belong to me in each dream I am going to be I'm going make you search, request, and cry for my hear
