

Cochise, Letter from hell

I'll be there if you send me a letter from hell
I'll be there if you kill me before the end

Waiting for you I'm waiting for pain waiting for the letter a letter from hell

I'll be there if you kill me before the end
My love
I'll been waiting for so many years to be there one
I cry
Waiting for your love and for the time that will come

Send me angel
Hold my sadness
Waiting crying
I still dying
