

Cockney Rejects, 15 Nights

all them people wanna say hello only wanna know ya cos you got some dough
one hand on my pocket and one on my throat squeezing me dry until i choke the exit sign is over there you can leave if you dare the contracts says ten more years it's your fault don't cry no tears 15 nights and i just can't cope i'd hang myself on a piece of rope 15 nights and i just don't care don't know when and just don't know where you've got to fight for something and you just can't give in if you ever get a smack in the mouth don't be bothered cos neither will i i ask you, what it's all about they tell you, go slog your guts out
