

CoCo Lee, Touch

[Whispers]

7 whole days.

7 whole nights.

I can't wait to get you by my side so you can touch me

Oh how I need you so much.

My body calls out please come and touch me.

Too long since I've had some

I need to feel your touch.

[Verse 1]

Carving your touch...

Saving my love for the next time

I'm yours-you're mine.

Baby, we'll be exciting when we meet up that night, two sparks ignite.

It's funny how a week seems like eternity.

I want to feel you near.

Can you get here?

[Chorus]

Oh how I need you so much.

My body calls out please come and touch me.

Too long since I've had some

I need to feel your touch.

[Verse 2]

Can't wait 'till we're skin on skin.

Face to face and heartbeats racing.

Subway, taxi, airplane or limousine.

Pick one oh anyone.

Come see about me.

It's funny how a week seems like eternity.

I want to feel you near.

Can you get here?

[Chorus]

Oh how I need you so much.

My body calls out please come and touch me.

Too long since I've had some

I need to feel your touch.

A phone call won't do...no!

I need much more than just to hear from you.

Sleeping by myself, it just ain't cool. No..

My body's aching baby and the cure is you.

[Chorus]

Oh how I need you so much.

My body calls out please come and touch me.

Too long since I've had some

I need to feel your touch.

Oh how I need you so much.

My body calls out please come and touch me.

Too long since I've had some

I need to feel your touch.

[Whispers]

It's been too long.

It feels like eternity.

I need to feel you baby.

Come and ... touch me.
