

Code Of Ethics, Me, Myself And I

Yeah it's me again.
did you think that you would see me?
I'm your prodigal friend and I hope You'll let me in.
I've been down again,
But I'm sure that you can see that,
It's my fault that I don't know where up is.

Everything, I want right now.
It's a mess I've made, selfish, self indulgent.

CHORUS:
Now it's time to put behind,
Me myself, me myself and I.

Until I kill this thing,
can you see me through the shadows?
Hold my hand till I'm someone just like you.

Everything, I want right now.
It's a mess I've made, selfish, self indulgent.

CHORUS:
Now it's time, to put behind,
me myself, me myself and I
Now it's time, to get in line,
Me myself, me myself and I.
