Cody Commander, Double The Trouble

Da, da, ra da da ra dam dam.......

If you just double time your time,
Then, it shows me you actually just wanna be you
But then, if you double, do do do do do double your trouble,
We'll be together, yeah, yeah, yeah

So, just double the trouble,
Everything will be fine,
If you just double the trouble,
We'll be together.

I'm here at detention at school for being too naughty
Well, if you just make the trouble,
You'll double the trouble,
But it doesn't mean I already love you.

So, just double the trouble,
Everything will be fine,
If you just double the trouble,
We'll be together.

Baby, just do do do double the trouble,
And we'll be together here at the, at the detention room.
I'm just a tenth grader, and I wanna have fun.
I might be thirteen, but just do it.

Oh, girl!!!!!!!!
If you just double the trouble,
Everything will be fine,
Just go, babe, go here in the detention room with me.

My mind, I've lost it, I've searched it,
But tell me, what happened to me?

If you juust double the trouble,
Everything will be fine,
If you just double the trouble,
We'll be together.

Whoah, whoah, whoah!

Why are you still noticing him?
I thought you want to be me,
Well, guess what?
I don't wanna, I don't wanna be like anyone else but myself.

Myself, self, self.
Yeah, yeah!

So---------------

If you just double the trouble,
Everything will be fine,
If you just double the trouble,
We'll be together.

Oh, baby, just do it, just double the trouble,
And everything will be fine,
Just double the trouble,
And we'll be together.

Yeah, double the trouble!
Double the trouble, double the touble, oh, girl, just double the trouble,

Oh, yeah, yeah.
Just baby, double the trouble.
