

Coheed And Cambria, A Favor House Atlantic (Ac)

Your eyes tell the story
Of a day you wish you could Recall that moments that once have

Retract the footsteps that Brought us to this favor
I wouldn't ask this of you

Good eye, Sniper
Now I'll shoot
You Run

With the words you scribbled on the walls
With the loss of friends you didn't have
I'll call you when the time is right
Are you in
Are you out?
From them all to know our victories song

Run quick, they're behind us
Didn't think we'd ever make it
This close to safety in one piece

You wanna kill me
Now I can sense you're angry
Lets leave as friends, and bid farewell

Nice try, liar
Now I shoot
You run

With the words you scribbled on the walls
With the loss of friends you didn't have
I'll call you when the time is right
Are you in, are you out?
From them all to know the victories song

Bye bye beautiful
Don't bother to write
Disturbed by your words
and they're calling all cars
Face step, steps down
Face step, steps down

Bye bye beautiful
Don't bother to write
Disturbed by your words
and they're calling all cars
Face step, steps down
Face step, steps down

The words we've brought it up before
With the loss of blood, you fall short
Could this be the press of at their ways
At my life's end
Please sing
The worst of my words in your victory song

Bye bye beautiful

Bye bye beautiful
Face step, steps down
