

Coheed And Cambria, Anything For You

you could have been all i wanted but you weren't honest now just in my no clue you choked all the choices that favors but if you really loved me you would have torn my but you took time to do i hold it these from me fucking up all i do

then see cause it didn't make me stop master again
you've been chasing your life hang on to the glory of my right hand hearing correct is our love ever long two fools on the sport of compassion you seem to take premise to all of these the ghost on the curse you have made me like (no clue) the ladder i will throw your hand the sound of the curse that you offer here you'll never will sour

but you could just no clue to never this no clue having will i become be true that this is no ones job the wicked
god damn you demons praising the girl

hearing correct in the ... is a love that belongs two fools on the sport of compassion

one last kiss for you
one more week for you
please make up your mind girl i'd do anything for you
one last kiss for you
before i hope you die
