Coheed And Cambria, Goodnight

Light
Round and round with tickled toes
Bare-bummed, we all fall

Lit
Arms and charm in living room
We play the Star Wars

Next door
My bed is shared with Matthew
And I love the sweet kiss

I love
Our battles in our dreams
Be nestled snuggly,
Cry on

Luke, boy, did you bring the X-wing fighter?
I'm bent to please inside my armor

I will not...(yeah) fail

A wookie Chewbacca, Jabba, and all his friends love
Boba Fett's men representing the Clone Wars
Restore, we all fall downward

Did you bring the X-wing fighter?
I'm bent to please inside my armor
I will fail

I'd give it up if I were you (oh oh oh)
Never, please, and I was more (than)
[x3]

I'd give up if I were you

Goodnight [x3]

Whoa oh oh
Summer, she's gone but I remain
Summer, she gazed upon what I could know and Remembered it all fall downward

Did you bring the X-wing fighter?
I'm bent to please inside my armor
I will not

I'd give it up if I were you (oh oh oh)
Never, please, and I was more (than)
[x3]

I'd give it up if I were you
