Coheed And Cambria, I'm Going To Kill You

In the days when children sung In the heart claim shattered son You were right in telling them Where they were beneath the snow

Space call god right now Let them be judged upon What they've done to him my son In the snow before the sun

Please god right now Please god right now

If they could only say all the things they saw would they? They were only boys With time I create Invest investigate puzzle saw belated

If they could only say all the things they saw would they? They were only boys With time I create Invest investigate puzzle saw belated

Which one killed my boy?
My question to incriminating convoy I want death and blood for my son We will curse that forms the sun

Please god right now Please god right now

If they could only say all the things they saw would they? They were only boys With time I create Invest investigate puzzle saw belated

If they could only say all the things they saw would they? They were only boys With time I create Invest investigate puzzle saw belated

If they could only say all the things they saw would they? They were only boys With time I create Invest investigate puzzle saw belated

If they could only say all the things they saw would they? They were only boys
