

Coheed And Cambria, Tell All Your Friends

the roads are fast the words behind your teeth the fields of gold of youth summon me but im not the one that they need reborn cause im not the only one that has to but leave it alone we're badly the girl that dies again and im waiting

so tell all your friends
in the unwaiting end
the way you go they wont be following
so tell all your friends
in the unwaiting end

the roads are fast the words behind you the birds the truth the pier i dreamed of but your not is the real one i thought oh you're just a page of from book with nothing to show for a badly a boy that's waiting and your still there

in the unwaiting end
not the ones who pass the end the way you go...

no
no
