

Coko, Bigger Than We

The sun's a million miles away projecting
Light for you and me to see
And the leaves on a tree
Clear the air so we can breath the air we breath
But I sometimes feel that we can't see that

These are the things
That are bigger than we

How can it be that these things
Given to us so freely
Get taken for granted but are worth more
Than our how our records sold at stores
Our high grossing tours
OF one thing be sure
Real love when it's pure
Love endures, and

These are the things
That are bigger than we

With all life's miracles we see (oh we see)
We're put in place for you and me
Why don't we do what should come so easily

And find common ground in one love
Unconditionally

These are the things
That are bigger than we

No one can't tell me that it can't be
(Bigger than we)
But it's gonna take a bigger you, and a bigger me
(Bigger than we)

It's not your money
It can't be
It's how I treat you
And you - me
In spite of the obstacle
That we see
It's gonna take a bigger you, and me
(Bigger than we)

It's not your money
It can't be
It's how I treat you
And you - me
In spite of the obstacle
That we see
It's gonna take a bigger you, and me
(Bigger than we)
