Cold, Suffocate (Feat. Sierra Swan)

I could take every fucking word she said, throw it in her face. Would she even care?
I still remember when she looked at me,
a frown upon her face. Trying to be sincere.
I gathered all those little things she said, kept them close to me. Trying to make this real. This cloud won't always hover over me, i'm leaving you today. Cause now i see.
Chorus:
Suffocate. You Suffocate.
That you lie (I don't lie)
and you're fake (I'm not fake) Suffocate. You Suffocate.
you always take (i don't take) what you can (what i can)
I could take every fucking game you play, blow it all away. Would you even care?
I could take all those nights you said to me,
would never go away. Never disappear.
This cloud won't always hover over me,
i'm leaving you today. Cause now i see.
Chorusx2
Now i'm far away from you.
I'll never bring back yesterday.
You're such a fake it's true.
I can't believe the words you say.
I'm far away from you.
I'll never bring back yesterday.
Chorusx2
(Sierra Swan)
I always take what i can.
I always take what i can.
