

Cold War Kids, Against Privacy

We dont gamble
We dont do the stock exchange
We paint paintings
We write scenes for the stage

We will talk about welfare
We will talk about sex
Talk about the pope in Prada shoes
Nobody gets upset, nobody gets upset

And were waiting
Were waiting for your call
Were against privacy
Were against privacy

Forget ex-girlfriends
We want little governments
We tell stories
We want to get you to join in

Call us optimistic
We get the meanest looks
We are bar stool romantics
History books will show, history books will show

And were waiting
Were waiting for your call
Were against privacy
Were against privacy

And were waiting and were waiting
Were waiting for your call
Were against privacy
Were against privacy

And were waiting
And were waiting for your call
Were sure that youll agree
