

Cold, When Heaven's Not Far Away

If you slip away in dark ness do you fall
And if god created love, did he make it for everyone
Is there solitude and hope can you still dream
If the devil makes you cry do you change?

In my own shame when heavens not far away

Do the lil things in life stay with you soul
Does an angel hold a sign with directions for everyone
Is there someone there to have and hold for me
If the stars refuse to shine do you change?
