

Cole Lloyd, There For Her

sometimes i get to thinking i'm a hurting kind of guy why'd that woman leave me for a lesser kind if you don't know now, then you never will is what she said she said i didn't listen well i know that that's untrue she said i didn't understand her well i guess that you do well i guess you do summer came around her old blanket on the floor i woke to the slamming of the door then the rain came and i just let it pour all over me
i've been wronged by my own kind downed by my own undertakings now i'm down by the water, black water and i'm looking in she said i wouldn't miss her well you know that that's unfair she said i wasn't there for her well i never would have been there no sir, if not for her summer comes around
and i miss that woman more i guess i'll get me somewhere by the fall when the rain comes well i'll just let it pour all over me
