

Coleske, Take Me Where The Sun Is Shining

Take me where the sun is shining
Where the air up in the skies are in my eyes
And I will fly

Overcasting sight
A view that wears the colour of the night
Appearing everytime I feel alright
No definition too close to see what's in front of me
Distance can bring a change to this illusion
For just a moment I'm getting down again
So lift me up

Take me where the sun is shining
Where the air up in the skies are in my eyes
And I will fly to where
My dreams are hiding somewhere in the sky
For just a while

Bridges all around
Where victories of winners still survive
And evidence of losers on the ground traces left behind
Not always easy to erase a time
So hard to get it out this frame of mind
And every hour it makes me wonder
Why I should stay

Take me where the sun is shining
Where the air up in the skies are in my eyes
And I will fly to where
My dreams are hiding somewhere in the sky
For just a while

Take me where the sun is shining
Where the air up in the skies are in my eyes
And I will fly to where
My dreams are hiding somewhere in the sky
For just a while
Where the air up in the skies are in my eyes
And I will fly to where
My dreams are hiding somewhere in the sky
For just a while
For just a while...
