Colin Hay Band, Loking For Jack

Looking for Jack (Lyrics: Colin Hay, Music: Colin Hay & amp; Jeremy Alsop)

Everybody's always looking for Jack In the fire and in the water Everybody's always looking for Jack In the streets and on the corners

I always wanted to be like Jack He's as cool as they come Yeah I always wanted to be like Jack Still for me, he's the one

Someday...Someday...

Someday...Someday...

Hear the wind blow through the long grass I hear laughter in the night No revelations as the years pass They disappear from sight

As I grow older I grow younger Every day is like a dream I wouldn't go back for a moment Except for maybe seventeen

Someday...Someday...

Someday...Someday...

Everybody's always looking for Jack In the fire and in the water Everybody's always looking for Jack In the streets and on the corners

Even Jack is always looking for Jack He's always in another room And when I spoke to the woman there She said he left this afternoon

Someday...Someday'.
