

Colin James, Hate It When I See You Cry

Train is ready
To break in the sunlight
Heading full speed downtown
But here inside it
In the last compartment
Feels like the suns never coming around

But I know
The luck's is gonna change
Cuz, we're together
Your luck will be the same

You know I hate when I see you cry
I hate it when i see you cry

Useta be so easy
We were lost in eachother
Just wild through the days
And other peoples troubles
In the morning paper
Just Seemed a million miles away

Before We knew it
The luck was ours
It meant bad news
When I brought you flowers

You know I hate it when I see you cry
I hate when I see you cry
I hate when I see you cry
I hate when I see you cry

Hope is rare
So when I feel it I try
To share it with you
And I'll tell you why

I never get use to it
And You know I cant lie
Its a fact of life
You Know I cant deny

You know I hate it when I see you cry
I hate it when I see you cry
I hate it when I see you cry(x7)
