

Collective Soul, New Vibration

I've got the sun and its seasons
Giving days only wanting to please
But I hear rhyme with no reason
Spilling words that mean nothing to me
I'm not wanting more Promises and beliefs
I'm just waiting for Someone to hear this heartbeat
I've got a soul and devotion
Giving love and a valentine
But I see life in its motion
Grinding out on every subject it finds

[chorus]

I'm not running
I'm not chasing
I'm just looking for that old sensation
I'm not cooling
I'm not craving
I'm just living for some new vibrations

[chorus]

I'm not running
I'm not chasing
I'm just looking for that old sensation
I'm not cooling
I'm not craving
I'm just living for some new vibrations
