

Collide, Complicated

whirling
twirling
inbetween
you're blurring
your words
and you're very complicated dream i'm addicted to you whatever
put you back where you belong dream
and your very misleading
all your words are complicated turning around and inbetween
whirling twirling
lines are gone
find a place where you believe
whatever you mean
turn
and you turn yourself around
put you back where you belong
i'm addicted to you
all your words are complicated
turning around and inbetween
whirling twirling
lines are gone
complicated
lines are gone
complicated inbetween
turning round and inbetween
