

Collin Raye, All My Roads

Looking back from where I stand tonight
I Wouldn't change a thing about my life.
Wrong turns I had to take back in those crazy years.
Could not have been mistakes if they have brought me here.

Cuz all my roads have led me to this night, this love I share with you and though the road was never smooth, life has made me someone who..
could be the right someone for you.

I don't regret a single broken heart
They taught me what love is, and what it's not Someone must have planned our two paths would cross
I couldn't see it then, but I was never lost.

Cuz all my roads have led me to this night, this love I share with you and though the road was never smooth, life has made me someone who..
could be the right someone for you.

Detours, deadends, endless explorations, you were my only destination.

Cuz all my roads have led me to this night, this love I share with you and though the road was never smooth, life has made me someone who..
could be the right someone for you.
