

Colonia, Devotion

You got the fire in your heart,
you melt the ice.
I love the way you smile,
come kiss my eyes...
Nothing can change
the way I feel about you.
Just hold me in your arms
and stay the night.
Let the passion unite us
till the morning light.
Nothing can change
the way I feel about you.

Ref.

Come on and give me devotion
'cause I'm your lady.
Come and give me devotion
and let your love shine on me.

You got the fire in your heart,
you melt the ice.
I love the way you smile,
come kiss my eyes...
Nothing can change
the way I feel about you.
Just hold me in your arms
and stay the night.
Let the passion unite us
till the morning light.
Nothing can change
the way I feel about you.
