

Color Me Badd, Choose

You know I'm not much on words but I got to tell you how I feel.
Open your eyes, don't try to hide my love
So hard to say but I think it's best Gotta give your heart time to heal, and
When your ready, I'll be there
Chorus

Sometimes I try and
Sometimes I cry
Only love make me do
what I'll don't wanna do Anything you want me to
I will live or die you choose.
I'm serious when I tell you, love that a little heartbreak
Is ten to a dime
Don't be afraid ( are you with me baby?)
Just turn the page my love
Curious when the day will come
I see my reflection in your eyes
Take your time and I'll be there

Chorus

Sometimes I try and (sometime a sometime)
Sometimes I cry (ohh)
Only love make me do
what I'll don't wanna do.
Anything you want me to (anything, anything)
I will live or die - you choose ( I will live or die for you) (ohh...
Spoken

Looking through my eyes at the world
Can't you see
Every time I see your face
There's a choice to be made.
Walking hand in hand
Through the sands of time
As I peer into the past
Foreign steps are terrorizing
Watching what is now
There's a fork in the path
Of the future of your life
Which road shall you choose?
Choices to be made
Past and present
It's not easy
But my love won't let me die Should until your heart resurrects me

Chorus till fade
