

Colosseum II, Rivers

Under your wings now, over the worst.
Now that the storm clouds have all blown away.
Now that the spells have been broken.
Feeling the beauty I am seeing today.
It was always there.

Don't let the rivers of our love run dry.
Don't stop the flames we have from burning.
Don't let the rivers of our love run dry.
Don't stop our world from turning.

Don't let the rivers of our love run dry.
Don't stop the flames we have from burning.
Don't let the rivers of our love run dry.
Don't stop our world, don't stop our world,
don't stop our world from turning.

The flames gonna keep on burning.
