

Colour Of Fire, Candles

Save the shame, ablaze. Well it's too late.
Lower your steam into your eyes!
What is this?
All these colours and lights are inside of me now.
I feel us coming together now.

Grind the life around your smile.
Colours of life transform me to tears.
Well what did you see, what did you hear?
What is this?
All these colours and lights are inside of me now.
I feel us coming together now
I feel us coming together now
