

Coltrane Motion, How To Be

every day i wake up drowning you're a sinking ship, i'm a ghost so kiss me in the dark and for one heavenly second i'm alive just to die in your arms, singing do de do de do de do someone

needs you

oh, let's play sixties pop stars you be ronny, i'll be phil and we'll sing 'baby, i love you' in perfect three-track mono til i'm almost certainly convinced you've hidden a seven-inch playing oh, but you say rock 'n roll's a crutch for those who can't control themselves from singing, dancing, and playing, la la la
