

Coltrane Motion, You Make It Easy

yeh, i've had my heart broken but not by lovers
only pop songs
and late-night tv
but still i've fallen
under your sorcery
but still im happy
just to be
you make it easy

I came to this city
walking tall
though its not a swagger
it's a limp
you showed me your beauty but the sweetness lies within and all my love songs
turn into hymns
you make it easy
