

Commodores, Girl, I Think The World About You

Sweet little woman can't you see that you're the only one for me you make me feel good, so good inside stay by me woman for the rest of my life and as I think of you more every day There's only one thing I can say and that's:

Girl, I think the world about you always thinkin' of you
Girl, I think the world about you
I'm always thinkin' of you

So many wonders in your world it seems, you're the picture of a woman - a little girl's dream,
you seem so weak sometimes to be so strong,
you make a man like me finally to belong, no words can say how much I need you so, but oh my love I want the world to know

Girl, I think the world about you
always thinkin' of you
Girl, I think the world about you
I'm always thinkin' of you

There's no words to say how much I need you so, but oh sweet girl I want the world to know

Girl, I think the world about you
always thinkin' of you
Girl, I think the world about you
I'm always thinkin' of you
