

Common Rider, Heatseekers

We're code rebels walking in the freezing night We're Heatseekers born beneath the shooting light and nothing can stop us we're outside of time and everyone knows we burn at fever heights

That's the way Heatseekers
We're gonna last forever

We're data bomb kids, so count from ten to one We're sentinel hearts of a forgotten sun
Even in sleep, we're moving like an arrow Believe we will keep the promise of our marrow We're penitent watchers of a fallen kind insisting on soul, despite the nothing tide listening for heartbeats in the crossfire searching an ice age for a sign of fire

That's the way Heatseekers
We're gonna last forever
