

Conception, Cry

you are everything I would you are found in what I do as the moon passes slowly by we say our words and then we cry a little bit cause we do belong the dark seems so bright tonight keep me close keep me warm the stars cast a mellow light enough for a rose a rose to be born who can say if you remain my dear who can tell if you will always care but you know that I'm around to comfort you and play the clown so you can laugh cause we do belong
the dark seems so bright tonight
keep me close
keep me warm
cry your tears of joy cry a tear for me and you and everything we are
the dark seems so bright tonight
keep me close
