

Conception, Hold On

don't try to seize the time we shared for all I ever do I do for you just close your eyes and say you care for all we ever knew I know its true and I will teach you how to laugh and cry the world succumb to our pride to our pride won't you hold on
and we'll be forgiven
just you hold on
I'll always be there for you I know my thoughts are far away but all I ever do I do for you one gentle touch is worth the pain and all we ever knew I know it's true and I will teach you how to love me in my dreams you're still in my embrace my embrace won't you hold on
just you hold on
I can see you when I close my eyes
when I'm all alone
when I'm all alone
and I wish that you could hold my hand for a little while for a little while
