Conception, Tell Me When I'm Gone

I could never compromise on all my dreams I would never sacrifice my self-esteem paint your kiss on someone elses collar soak your sorrow with another dollar tell me when I'm gone
"nothing can remain, you know nothing" cut the crap shut your mouth until it's over fed up with counting cheap clichEs
it's really time you reach your point my dear the reptile smile on your tender lips revealing all I wanna know so keep your little riddles to yourself for heaven's sake
tell me when I'm gone
I feel you waste my time
tell me when I'm gone
for then it will be fine I'll be fine when tomorrow covers me
"no-one can be tamed, you know, no-one" you repeat shut your mouth until it's over I never asked for anything but someone who'd accept the way I am I damn the day when you said to me "could you forgive me once again?" now I know enough to hate myself for heaven's sake
tell me when I'm gone
I feel you waste my time
tell me when I'm gone
for then it will be fine
I'll be fine when tomorrow covers me hard to care for what you don't respect hard to swallow with a broken neck